

ROUNDUP

Nationwide will race today

ASSOCIATED PRESS

FONTANA, Calif. — Rain on Sunday forced NASCAR to delay the running of the Nationwide Series race at Auto Club Speedway.

After it was rained out Saturday, the race was rescheduled to be run following Sunday's Auto Club 500 Sprint Cup event. But several long rain delays in that race meant the Nationwide event had to be moved to 1 p.m. today (TV hadn't been determined).

Several of the Cup stars, including Dale Earnhardt Jr. and Kyle Busch, were in the Nationwide lineup.

Dixon, Beckman among NHRA winners

CHANDLER, Ariz. — Larry Dixon raced to his first Top Fuel victory of the season and 42nd overall, beating Dave Grubnic in the final of the Checker Schuck's Krugen NHRA Nationals at Firebird International Raceway.

Jack Beckman and V. Gaines also won their divisions in the NHRA POWERade Drag Racing Series event.

Dixon drove his dragster to a 4.532-second, 327.19-mph victory over Grubnic to tie Tony Schumacher for ninth place on the NHRA career victory list.

Australian driver dies

ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA — A 27-year-old V8 touring car driver died, two days after he was injured in a race crash.

Ashley Cooper, from Ulladulla in New South Wales state, was critically injured when his vehicle hit a safety barrier at the exit of a corner at more than 120 mph.

Supercross: Millsaps wins

ATLANTA — Georgia rider David Millsaps raced to his first Monster Energy AMA Supercross victory Saturday night, beating Kevin Windham in front of 67,429 fans at the Georgia Dome.

